WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW BEFORE APPLYING

HOW CAN I BECOME A JUDGE?

In the United States and Canada a prospective judge must attend an NRHA Applicant Seminar and upon passing the testing requirements as set forth by the Judges Committee will be eligible to attend an NRHA Judges School. Members outside of the U.S. and Canada can attend an NRHA Applicant Seminar and Judges School in their home country as they are scheduled. Upon passing the testing requirements of an NRHA Judges School or international judges school, those persons will then have their names submitted to the Board of Directors for consideration for final judging privileges.

DO I QUALIFY?

The applicant must be at least twenty-five (25) years of age and must have been an NRHA member in good standing for two consecutive years before he or she can be considered for approval as an NRHA judge.

NRHA Applicant Seminars are available to NRHA members and other interested parties for a $50 () registration fee. Those in attendance who wish to take the test must complete an application, pay an additional $100 (), and be a current NRHA member. Proof of membership must be provided. Memberships may be paid at the seminar.
